February 2012 Program

Got Salt?

Balancing and managing, regional and statewide solutions

Presented by

Mr. Ron Davis

Executive Director, CalDesal

Ron Davis serves as the first executive director of CalDesal, a statewide organization that advocates in support of ocean and groundwater desalination as a key component to meeting our future water supply challenges. Ron is a highly respected and experienced California water policy professional who recently served as state legislative director of the Association of California Water Agencies (ACWA). This is a great opportunity to learn the challenges and opportunities that exist for moving potential desalination projects forward as well as salinity management solutions.
